

I am against mandating copy protection, or including it as part of a digital TV standard.